

SHA, Jingjing 沙晶晶

Tel: (+86 21) 6043 5009

E-mail: shajingjing@haiwen-law.com

City: Shanghai

Practices: cross-border M&A, private equity, foreign direct investment

Basic Information

Jingjing is an Partner in our Shanghai office. She focuses her practice on cross-border M&A, foreign direct investment and private equity. Jingjing has advised on various One Belt and One Road overseas investment for major state-owned Chinese companies as well as Chinese listed companies.

Professional History

Prior to joining Haiwen & Partners, Jingjing worked in Beijing office of Zhong Lun Law Firm from 2015 to 2018.

Experience Highlights

- Representing Meihua Group in its bidding for Kyowa Hakko Bio's carve-out food amino acids, pharmaceutical amino acids, HMO (Human Milk Oligosaccharides) businesses, and related operating companies in Japan, China, the US, Europe, and Southeast Asia.
- Representing a Chinese listed company in its bidding for certain carve-out business in China and Europe from a European auto-parts manufacturer.
- Representing a German headquartered global company in its contemplated carve-out transaction (including China subsidiaries) in respect of Chinese law.
- Represented Trustar Capital in its spin-off of Jissbon and LifeStyles Health business and the subsequent sale of LifeStyles Health, a global sexual health and wellness platform.
- Represented Trustar Capital in its equity investment in MedAlliance, a leading global medical technology company in Switzerland.
- Represented Brady Corporation in its acquisition of the Suzhou and Yueyang based companies and related assets in China from Regal Recnord.
- Represented Gotion High-Tech in its acquisition of 100% of a subsidiary of Bosch Group in Gottingen, Germany.
- Represented Gotion High-Tech in the acquisition of a 70% interest in a nickel mining company located in Jakarta, Indonesia.
- Represented Zhejiang Hailiang in its acquisition of brass and tube Businesses in Germany, Italy, France and Spain from KME Group.
- Represented Sensata Technologies, a leading industrial technology company, in providing comprehensive legal support for multiple investments, joint ventures, exits, and asset disposal projects of its China subsidiaries.

- Represented a Chinese listed company in its acquisition of a nickel mine located in Zambia owned by a British company.
- Represented a Chinese listed company in its acquisition of an Australian listed mining company, which owns several copper mines in Congo.
- Represented Sinosteel Equipment and Engineering Co., Ltd in its investment of coal fired power plant BOO project in Cambodia.
- Provided legal services for Sinoma Cement's cement investment project in Zambia.
- Represented Hillhouse Capital, 5Y Capital and Neumann Advisors in their Series A and A+ investments in "Xiaoice" , the AI platform.
- Represented BAI Capital's USD fund in its various minority investments in payments, content platforms, and online insurance brokerage sectors.
- Represented Sequoia Capital's USD and RMB funds in their various minority investments in TMT, pharmaceuticals, and medical technology sectors.

Education

Jingjing received her bachelor' s degree in law from Northwest University of Politics & Law in 2007. Subsequently, she received her L.L.M. and J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law in 2009 and 2014 respectively.

Language

Jingjing' s native language is Mandarin, and she speaks English fluently.